

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of a company providing an "in kind" gift to a campaign.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The FCC should require SBC to provide free air time to the Kerry campaign if they insist on this dangerous course of action.

Sinclair's actions how why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
